In the class, Mrs Johnson asked the students to colour a lion, but Jon thought "Colouring is not my favourite thing to do," thought Jon.

"I want to draw something, not colour something," thought Jon. Jon was a good artist(画家). He liked drawing and he drew very well.

Most of the kids enjoyed this, and they coloured the lion happily. "Maybe I can draw a tiger first," thought Jon. "and then I can colour the lion when I finish it." He turned his paper over and started to draw the tiger.

Mrs Johnson walked around the classroom. Jon heard her get closer to his desk and then stop. He looked up at her slowly and expected(期盼) an angry look. Jon usually followed directions(指示). He was worried when she looked at his paper.

"Jon, what is this?" asked Mrs Johnson.

Jon tried to think of what to tell. But Mrs Johnson took Jon's paper and said, "Class, please stop what you are doing."

"She is going to tell the class I didn't follow directions," thought Jon.

"Jon has a very interesting picture," Mrs Johnson said excitedly. "It's of a tiger."

To Jon, she said, "Jon, I didn't know you were such a great artist. This is wonderful!"

Mrs Johnson hung(挂) the picture of the tiger on the wall, and Jon felt happy and relaxed.

Owls(猫头鹰) live in almost every country in the world. Most owls don't sleep at night. When they fly, you can hardly hear them. They are very quiet. Owls are good at hunting(猎食). They eat a lot of things such as mice, snakes, small birds and even fish. Owls have very good hearing. That helps them to hunt well in dark places. Their eyes are special. Both of their eyes face front. They can see very far away. There are facial disks(面盘) around their eyes. These facial disks can help with their hearing. Owls can turn their heads 270°. That helps them see what's going on all around them.

Maybe because owls look a little different and have special life habits(习惯), there are a lot of stories about them. Some cultures believe that owls are very clever and some cultures think owls may bring bad luck to people. However, owls are really good friends of people. They eat lots of mice every year. That helps save a lot of food for people. However, the number of owls in the world is becoming smaller and smaller because of people's activities. Now owls are protected by law(受法律保护) in many places of the world. For example, in some places, people can't keep an owl as a pet(宠物) at home.

根据材料内容选择最佳答案。

A. mice B. snakes C. fish D. cats

( ) 62. Owls' facial disks help them _____.

A. see far away B. hear clearly

C. fly quietly D. turn their heads around

( ) 63. Why are there many stories about owls?

A. Because they look different and have special habits.

B. Because they may bring bad luck to people.

C. Because they are cleverer than other birds.

D. Because they are protected by law.

( ) 64. Owls are friends of people because _____.

A. they protect people's home at night

B. they can help save food for people

C. they like to live close to people

D. they are pets in many families

( ) 65. You may read this passage in a magazine of _____.
