A young man entered the last interview of a company. The director found that the young man's academic grades were very good.

"Did you get any scholarships(奖学金) in school? The director asked. "None," the young man answered.

"Was it your father who paid for your school fees(学费)?" the director asked. "My father passed away when I was one year old, so it was my mother who paid for my school fees," the young man answered.

"Where did your mother work? " the director asked. "My mother cleaned clothes," the young man said. The director looked at the young man's hands. He had a pair of smooth and perfect hands.

"Have you ever helped your mother wash the clothes before?" the director asked. "Never," the young man answered. "I have a request," the director said. "When you go back home today, go and clean your mother's hands, and then see me tomorrow morning."

The young man felt that his chance of getting the job was high. When he went back, he happily asked his mother to let him clean her hands. His mother felt strange; happy but with mixed feelings. She showed her hands to the kid. The young man cleaned his mother's hands slowly. His tears fell as he did that. It was the first time he had noticed that his mother's hands were so wrinkled. He realized it was this pair of hands that helped him pay the fees.

The next morning, the young man went to the director's office. "I cleaned my mother's hands, and I know that without my mother, I would not be the person I am today," he said.

"This is what I am looking for in my manager," the director said. "I want a person who can appreciate(感激) the help of others to get things done. You get the job!"

51. What did the director ask the young man to do that night?
A. To help his mother wash the clothes. B. To wash his mother's hands.
C. To chat with his mother. D. To hug his mother.
52. The underlined word "wrinkled" in paragraph 6 probably means _____.
A. soft B. rough C. dirty D. smooth
53. What can we learn from the passage about the young man?
A. The young man had good academic grades and got scholarships.
B. His parents worked hard to pay the fees.
C. The young man had a pair of hands that looked just like his mother's.
D. The young man finally got the job as a manager.
54. Which of the following is wrong about the young man's mother?
A. Her son never helped her with her work before the interview.
B. Life was difficult but she managed to support her son.
C. She couldn't help crying when her son washed her hands that night.
D. Her son learned a lot from what she had done for him.
55. What did the director value most from the young man?
A. Working ability. B. Academic grades.
C. Communication skills. D. Appreciation.

Thousands of years ago, in the south of ancient China, there lived Shennong, a man who had an ox(牛) head and human body. Seeing that local people were suffering from disease, he built ladders and houses on a high mountain to store hundreds of medical plants. To remember him, people named the place Shennongjia.

The legend(传说) makes Shennongjia in Hubei an inviting place for tourists. Traveling there is a unique experience, as you can see sceneries of the four seasons from different altitudes. "When the bottom of the mountain is summer, the top is spring and while the foothill is autumn, the top is covered with ice," local people say of the special climate of Shennongjia.

Shennongjia is also home to 5,000 species of animals and plants. Many animals in danger live there, such as the golden monkey, the clouded leopard and the Asian black bear.

One interesting and mysterious thing about Shennongjia is its legend of wild men. Some people once claimed that they saw big prints or big-foot creatures. Yet so far, scientists haven't proved it is true and some say they are just bears.

The beautiful place has recently received a new title. On July 17, 2016, Shennongjia Forestry District was added to United Nations World Heritage list as a natural site. China now has 50 world heritage sites(遗址), second only to Italy in the world.

56. Which of the following is right about Shennong?
A. Shennong had an ox body.
B. Shennong grew medical plants for people.
C. Shennong helped the local people.
D. Shennong named the place Shennongjia.
57. In Shennongjia, _____.
A. there are many medical stores along the way
B. people can experience four seasons up the mountain
C. there are 500 species of animals and plants
D. scientists have proved there are wild men there
58. What does the underlined word "title" mean in paragraph 5?
A. 标题 B. 景点 C. 称号 D. 职务
59. Which of the following countries has the most world heritage sites?
A. Italy. B. The USA. C. China. D. Canada.
60. What's the main idea of the passage?
A. The legend of Shennong B. Animals living in Shennongjia
C. The amazing Shennongjia D. World heritage sites

It was the beginning of a new term. As a new teacher in that school, I didn't know any of the students. A little girl was standing at the gate of the classroom. She looked very shy.

I walked up to her and asked why she stood there. But she said nothing. Then a boy shouted, "She is from Grade Four, the worst student in her grade." I looked at the little girl. ①She didn't seem to be the smart kind. I understood why her teacher asked her to stay in Grade Three. I took her hand and led her into the classroom.

"Sit here. Now you are my student and I'm your teacher," I said. She still said nothing, but suddenly began to cry.

I later learnt that her parents died in a car ②_____/'æksɪdənt/. She became sad and didn't like talking to others after that.

She learned very slowly. I gave her respect and never looked down upon(鄙视) her as I know everybody deserves (值得) respect. I helped her after school, and she was making progress little by little. ③随着时间流逝，她不像以前那般害羞。At the end of the term, she seemed to have forgotten all her sadness. She was not among the best students when she left that school, but at least, ④_____.

In the following years, she would send me a card on each Thanksgiving Day. Three days ago, I received an invitation to her wedding. And now, I am at her wedding, and she is smiling ⑤_____/'breɪtli/.

Everyone deserves respect and everyone can be happy.

Say No to Junk Food

Nowadays, more and more attention has been paid to food safety and health. As far as I am concerned, we should say no to junk food.

There is no doubt that junk food is made delicious and attractive, but it surely does harm to our body. Meanwhile, the over packaging necessarily leads to much more rubbish.

To get away from the junk food, we should focus on how to keep a healthy lifestyle. There are many tips to follow. First, eat regularly, three meals a day on time. Try as few snacks or fast food as possible. Second, take more fruits and vegetables which can provide the nutrition we need. What's more, do more outdoor activities, as long as you are busy with something interesting, you will more probably get away from junk food.

In a word, a healthy diet with less junk food can help make us stronger and stronger.

Welcome to the Sea World. Here is some information for you. We are open six days a week, from Tuesday to Sunday, from nine a.m. to six p.m. Visitors are welcome all year round except March, because we have to close in March for painting and repairs.

Every morning at eleven, there is a short film about the sea in the Visitor Center. Then you can go to see different animals in different halls.If you are hungry, enjoy the delicious food in the dining room.

The dolphin show begins at two o'clock every afternoon. Dolphins are lovely and clever animals, so the show is the children's favorite at Sea World. You must arrive by a quarter to two to have a good seat.

Adult tickets cost one hundred and sixty yuan and tickets for children are eighty yuan. And there are special prices for school groups.

Have fun!
