I could still remember how much I loved reading when I was a student. I was 31 about reading newspapers at that time. I used to walk twenty 32 every day to the nearest bus station just to buy a newspaper.

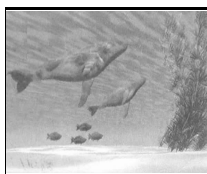

Later, I fell in love with reading novels. Sometimes, I read the same novel for many times. I used to save money every week to buy a new novel. I had so many books, and my friends said I could 33 some of them. But I didn't want to do that, 34 they were important to me.

However, I had to sell some of my books one day. I was so 35 that I didn't have money to buy food. I didn't want to ask my parents for money or 36 money from my friends. So I chose a few books and sold them. I got enough money to buy food and drinks. But I felt 37.

Now, I have a job and don't have much free time. But I 38 try to find some time to read. I often read while eating, after meals or deep at night. I enjoy 39 in reading.

Reading helps me a lot. From books I learn many new things and know how to 40 problems. Reading has become a necessary part of my life.

Many animals are in danger around the world. Here are some examples.

	The blue whale lives in oceans around the world. It is the largest animal in the world, but it eats the smallest animals for food. Many people kill the whales. And not enough clean water is also a problem. There may be only 1,300 blue whales left.
	The wild Bactrian camel lives in Northwest China and Mongolia. It is a large camel and the only species (种类) in the world with two humps (驼峰). There are perhaps 950 left in the wild.

My mother was a cleaner in our school dinning hall when I was in the middle school. At that time she was such an embarrassment (难堪) to me not only because of her job but also her look. She had only one eye. Every time I saw her in my school, I pretended (假装) not to see her and ran away.

After leaving school, I got a good job in another city. Then I got married and had two kids. I told my family that my parents had been dead, so they never saw my mother, even her photo. But one day, I got a letter. It read:

My dear son Jeff,

I'm sorry to disturb you, but I really miss you all the time. I'm afraid that I will have no chance to see you again.

I'm sorry that I was always an embarrassment to you when you were growing up. However, I had no choice. When you were very young, you had an accident and lost an eye. As a mother, I couldn't stand that you would have to grow up with only one eye. So I ...

I was proud of my son who was enjoying his beautiful world for me with that eye.

With all my love to you!

Mom

After reading the letter, I cried for a long time.

46. Jeff didn't want his friends to know his mother because of her _____.
 A. job and look B. height and weight C. look and voice
47. From the passage we know Jeff's wife _____.

49. _____ lost an eye in an accident many years ago.
 A. Jeff B. Jeff's wife C. Jeff's mother
50. After reading the letter, Jeff would probably _____.
 A. regret for what he had done to his mother
 B. be angry with his mother
 C. forget the terrible accident

C

Scientists think that there has been life on the Earth for millions of years. However, we haven't found life on other planets yet.

The Earth is a planet and it goes around the Sun. Seven other planets also go around the Sun. None of them has an environment with air, so people and things cannot grow. The Sun and its planets are called the solar system (太阳系). The solar system is a small part of our galaxy (星系).

Scientists have also discovered many other galaxies in the universe. But they are a long way away because their light has travelled for many years to reach us. It is hard to understand how large the universe is.

So far, scientists have sent lots of spaceships to look at other planets in our solar system, and some spaceships have gone beyond the solar system. However, no one has discovered any life on other planets yet.

51. How many planets go around the Sun?
 A. Seven. B. Eight. C. Nine.
52. In order to look at other planets in our solar system, scientists have sent many _____.
 A. e-mails B. planes C. spaceships
53. _____ has found life on other planets.
 A. No one B. A scientist C. A traveller
54. Which of the following is TRUE?
 A. All the planets have an environment with air.
 B. The solar system includes the Sun and its planets.
 C. There is only one galaxy in the universe.
55. The best title of this passage should be _____.
 A. The Earth B. Our solar system C. The stars at night

第二节 回答问题 阅读短文,然后根据短文内容简要回答问题。(共5小题;每小题2分,满分10分)

Liu Sanzi is an eight-year-old boy from a village in Hunan Province. He has to give up going to school. It's important for him to work on their farm because there are seven people in Liu's family and they are very poor.

Li Yinming is 14 and from Gansu Province. He stopped going to school a few years ago. His parents have been ill and he has to look after them.

Many children like Li Yinming and Liu Sanzi can't get an education because their families are poor. Now they can go to school with the help of Project Hope. In the last 15 years, this project has raised money and paid for the education of 2.5 million poor students in the countryside. People in China and abroad have given 2.2 billion yuan. With this money, Project Hope has built many schools and libraries. It has also trained teachers and has sent students to high schools.

Last year Shen, a boy from Shanxi Province, went to a school with no electricity and only a few books. But this year he's at a new school with big classrooms and lots of books. Project Hope paid for it.

Most people in China have heard of Project Hope and have given money. But 40 million children from poor families still need help. Because of Project Hope, thousands of children have better lives. Perhaps we should all ask: What can we do for Project Hope? How can we help?

56. Did Liu Sanzi finish studying before he got help from Project Hope?

57. Why can't many children like Li Yinming get an education?

58. What has Project Hope built?

59. Does Shen's school have lots of books this year?

60. How many children from poor families still need help?
