Fifteen started in London, as a place to train young adults to work in a kitchen. Oliver's idea was to create a professional（专业的）kitchen that can help young people get a fresh start and a chance to become professional chefs.

Every September, a new group of 18-to 24-year-olds start work at Fifteen. In the 12 months of training, the student chefs study cooking at college and get hands-on training at the restaurant. The students also learn how to manage money and deal with difficult customers.
