Stuart works in a police station. There is a lot of pressure at work and he is busy catching thieves nearly every day.

One day, he felt stressed out and decided to take a long, hot bath to relax himself. He filled the bathtub with water and slowly laid down in it. A few minutes passed. Just as Stuart started feeling comfortable, the doorbell rang. He didn't want to leave the bathtub. But he still got out, put on his slippers and robe(浴衣) and went to the door.

A salesman at the door wanted to know if he needed any shoes. He shouted "No!" at the salesman and shut the door. He already had a good pair of shoes. Because of the salesman, he had to leave his comfortable bathtub!

When he returned to the bathroom, the doorbell rang again. Still in his slippers and robe, Stuart started for the door. He took one step, slipped on the wet floor, fell backward, and hit his back against the hard bathtub.

While in great pain, Stuart struggled into(挣扎着穿上) his clothes and drove to the doctor. After examining him, the doctor said, "You know, you're lucky. Nothing is broken. But you need to relax .... Why don't you go home and take a long, hot bath?"

50. What might be the best title?

A. Go to the door again. B. Buy a good pair of shoes.

C. Drive to the doctor. D. Take a long, hot bath.

B

Every year, students from all walks of life have the chance to take part in the Scripps National Spelling Bee, one of the nation's oldest and most popular competitions.

What is your guerdon for studying spelling? If you're Sameer Mishra, winner in 2008, knowing how to spell guerdon means you can get the scholarships(奖学金), the cash(现金) prizes, and the title of the best speller in the United States.

This competition has challenged students since 1925. Students under the age of 15 train year-round for a chance to show their spelling skills to the world. Round 1 of the spelling bee is a written test. All other rounds are oral(口头的) competitions. In the final rounds, spellers have one chance to spell a word correctly before you fail in the competition. It's an event that requires a lot of c-o-n-f-i-d-e-n-c-e.

C

Last night I had an unusual dream. I dreamed that I was flying. When I moved my arms up and down, I moved higher into the sky. I felt as free as a bird.

— Martha, aged 35

I had a bad dream that kept coming back. I walked out of my bedroom, and a monster came out and chased me.

— Jason, aged 14

Just like a movie, a dream has a story to tell and it has something to do with your life. Dreams are like scenes in a movie. So, take a closer look at your dreams, your dreams may be telling you something. Dreams can open doors into your world.

Flying is a positive symbol in a dream. Flying in dreams may mean success, confidence, and "being on top of it all."

Monsters in dreams often show fears. For Jason, the monsters may stand for the adults who control his life. Or it may mean Jason's fears about growing up and he is very upset.

Here are some other common symbols in dreams:

Mountains: Mountains are difficulties, so to dream of successfully climbing a mountain can show a true feeling of achievement.

Big waves: Water is peaceful in life. But a big wave(波浪) in dreams probably means an emotional(情感的) worry.

Food: Food is a symbol of knowledge, because it nourishes the body just as information nourishes the brain. However, it could just be food.

According to Scientific American, an American science magazine, dreaming is a way to create a memory of your current(当前的) emotion. You may dream the same things again and again. They are like a bridge which connects your experience with your emotion and memories. They will help you get a better understanding of yourself.

56. What might Martha's dream tell her?

A. She may be afraid of flying.　　B. She may like flying a lot.

C. She may be very successful.　　D. She may be very upset.

57. What does the underlined word "it" refer to?

A. Movie.　　B. Dream.　　C. Story.　　D. Life.

58. If you dream of climbing mountains successfully, how may you feel?

A. Afraid.　　B. Peaceful.　　C. Worried.　　D. Satisfied.

59. What might happen to Jason before he slept according to his dream?

A. He went swimming in the pool with friends.

B. He was forced to take after-school classes.

C. He felt very confident about his schoolwork.

D. He read a book about making Russian soup.

60. What can you learn from the passage?

A. Jason chased the monster in his dream.

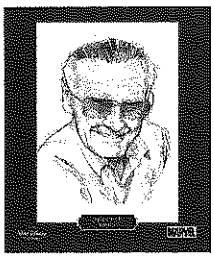

B. Food in a dream means the fear of life.

C. You won't dream about the same things again.

D. You may know more about yourself from dreams.

D

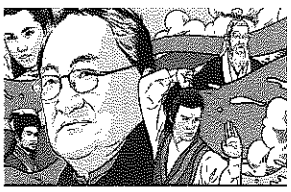

There are always people who have a hero dream in mind. Although they lived thousands of miles away from each other, the two dream-makers Stan Lee and Jin Yong made their heroes well-known to the whole world.

Stan Lee, the father of Marvel Comics created a dream world with a list of superheroes, including Spider-Man and Iron Man.

In the early '60s, with the help of artists such as Jack Kirby, he created more human superheroes who lived in the real world. They were not as perfect as the heroes at that time and they fought against everyday difficulties. From then on, Marvel characters are known the world over. Marvel films and TV series(连续剧) have become huge successes.

Just as his favorite saying Excelsior! which means moving on, he kept working for his superhero dream to the end of his life.

Jin Yong was considered as one of the greatest kongfu novel writers in China. And for many people, he made a jianghu that they could run into.

Jin wrote all of his 15 wuxia books between 1955 and 1972. While the values and tastes of readers have changed greatly, his books and the heroes he created continue to attract people. His works have been made into movies, TV series and even video games.

Jin is very good at using the language. His stories are always full of rich history; kongfu is described in detail(细节). Boston University professor Petrus Liu said, "He turns novels into an encyclopedia of Chinese history, medicine, geography, philosophy(哲学) .... Nobody ever does that."

61. Why were Stan Lee's superheroes different in the early '60s?

A. Because they were perfect heroes.　　B. Because they were like humans.

C. Because they were very successful.　　D. Because they were much stronger.

62. If you were a big fan of Stan Lee, what would you post on your Weibo?

A. I fell in love with kongfu after I read his books.

B. Jack Kirby is Stan Lee's best superhero in movies.

C. I am always dreaming of being a hero in his Jianghu.

D. He changed the way we look at heroes. #Excelsior!#

63. How long did it take Jin Yong to finish all his wuxia books?

A. 15 years.　　B. 17 years.　　C. 19 years.　　D. 21 years.

64. What does the underlined word "encyclopedia" mean in Chinese?

A. 百科全书　　B. 中国历史　　C. 医学丛书　　D. 地理图册

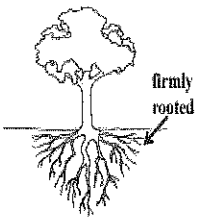

65. What did Stan Lee and Jin Yong have in common?

A. They both told historical stories.　　B. They both fought against difficulties.

C. They both created many heroes.　　D. They both made famous TV series.

W: Let's go to the park this weekend.

M: We've been there several times. Why not enjoy the wonderful weather at the beach or ride the horse on the farm?

W: Well, going to the beach would be better.

听第 5 段对话，回答第 10、11 题。

W: Would you like to see the movie Avengers 4?

M: Good idea. When will it start?

W: At 5 o'clock. We have 45 minutes left. I think we can take the bus there.

M: How about riding a bike? It's good exercise.

W: But it's so hot and I don't want to make myself sweat.

M: All right. Let's take the subway. The station is near here.

W: Good idea. Here we go.

听第 6 段对话，回答第 12、13 题。

W: Can I help you?

M: I need something for sports.

W: How about the T-shirts and the jacket?

M: Well, they are not my style. I prefer the blue hat. How much is it?

W: It used to be 10 dollars, but now it is 6 dollars.

M: OK, I'll take it.

W: Honey, it's your first day at school. Get ready for it? I hope you can enjoy it.

M: Em.... I'm a bit nervous. What if I get something wrong?

W: Don't worry. Lots of people get things wrong on their first day. Your uncle, a gardener, cut the flowers instead of the grass on his first day. Ned, the farm worker, tried to milk the chickens on his first day.

M: Well, I won't do anything as silly as that on my first day.

W: Of course you won't, but you might want to change your clothes before you go to school.

What do you think of the Forbidden City? Some of you may say visiting it is a little boring. But now, the Forbidden City is changing!

You can find many fun things about the museum, such as cute gifts and an interesting app. First, look at these dolls. They all have small eyes and round faces. They are very cute. Besides, Emperor's One Day is an app. In the app, you can be the emperor. A little lion can guide you to learn about the emperor's life. The emperor gets up at 5 o'clock in the morning, then he meets with his ministers. He needs to study for several hours and usually has only two meals a day. Do you like to be an emperor?
